NORTHWEST Leader Apologizes For Party's Terroristic Activities

AHN Chul, organization chief of the CHEJU-DO branch of the right-wing NORTHWEST KOREAN YOUTH ASSOCIATION, apologized to the CHEJU office of CIC on 18 November for the recent outbreaks of terrorism which have been committed by NORTHWEST men. AHN stated that the policy of the organization on CHEJU-DO was aimed at destroying communism, but that terrorism is against the rules of the organization. He declared that an investigation of party terroristic activity on the island was underway and reiterated that he meant to cooperate with Americans. (CIC P/R #697)

(2) NORTHWEST Promises No More Terrorism On CHEJU-DO

Following an outbreak of terrorism against island residents on CHEJU-DO by a traveling group of right-wing NORTHWEST KOREAN YOUTH ASSOCIATION members, NORTHWEST officials apologized to CIC on 18 November and promised that their members would instigate no more terroristic incidents on the island. Terrorism had been resorted to by the rightists in their campaign to collect money for the association. Five known beatings had occurred and at least an equal number of threats were made. (8) CHEJU-DO Termed "Little MOSCOW"

AN Chul, chief of the CHEJU (950-1150) branch of the right-wing NORTHWEST KOREAN YOUTH ASSOCIATION told local CIC last week that CHEJU-DO is the "Little MOSCOW" of KOREA and he intends to substantiate this claim for CIC. (CIC P/R #699

COMMENT: AN's report is contrary to other recent information from the island which shows strong right progress.
