Leftists, Rightists Express Opinions on US-USSR Joint Commission

A confidential informant reports the following summaries of conversations with several leftists and rightists in TAEJONG MYUN (920-1120) during the latter part of May.

(a) The rightist opinion of the US-USSR Joint Commission is: "It will end in failure, but they are not unduly concerned as they are in favor of the UNITED STATES' policy in KOREA. They support USAMGIK and Dr RHEE Syng Man. They intend to 'continue fighting' for Korean independence."

(b) The leftist opinion of the US-USSR Joint Commission is: "It will be successful and the left wing will get power to "Continue fighting." They may plan to devote themselves to revolution unless they get such political power from the US-USSR Joint Commission." (CIC S/I)

(2) Japanese Boat Intercepted At Sea With 48 Koreans

(Delayed Report) The TAIFUKU MARU, diesel powered, was intercepted at sea (1212-1170) at 280914 May 47, by an Australian destroyer, HMS QUIBERON, on KYUSHU patrol. The vessel had sailed from PUSAN, KOREA, without clearance papers, with 48 Koreans, including the crew, aboard. The captain of the ship stated that he had cleared PUSAN for CHEJU DO, also in KOREA. No cargo was reported on the ship. The Koreans will be deported to KOREA and Japanese authorities are handling disposition of the vessel. (Eighth Army P/R #584)
