HODGE SENDS FOR JACOBS.

Reference Seoul ex Moscow's 10, reason for no complete public report on Korean election results due to fact such results could not become final until May twenty-fifth. Election law provided two-week period for National Election Committee investigate complaints and validate election of successful candidates. Final results being declared today by Election Committee substantiates information in Seoul POLAD 384, May 22, which Department may wish repeat to Moscow. Only exception may be holding new election in two of districts on Cheju Island where only about 50 percent registered voters voted due to threats and violence. This exception will not substantially change picture because only 2 out of 200 assemblymen are involved and Cheju Island will be represented by one other duly elected candidate.

Sent to Department; Department pass to Moscow as No. 1.
