THE HONORABLE
THE SECRETARY OF STATE,
WASHINGTON.

SIR:

In this connection, the composition of the Board of Special Investigations becomes all important since only this body can initiate inquiries and pass reports on for prosecution. The ten members thus, one from each of eight provinces, one from Seoul, and one representing Cheju do and Hwanghae Province, have just been chosen from among assemblymen, and of their number one is openly a member of the Hankook Democratic Party, one is reported to be secretly a member, four are members of the National Society for the Acceleration of Korean Independence (NSAKI), two are members of the Korean Independence Party, and two are independent. Two members of the Hankook Democratic Party were defeated during their bid for membership, and replaced by the NSAKI and one Independent.

KIM,

Kyung Bai, NSAKI representing both Cheju and Hwanghae (south of 38th parallel) provinces, is a well-to-do farmer who has been a supporter of the Dai Dong youth corps in his area, and seems now to steer a middle course.

Respectfully yours,
