

Reports also bring news of successes. The most positive of these have recently emanated from Chejoo Island, where operations appear now to have almost entered the mopping-up stage. But good news has not been absent from the southern provinces. Both newspapers and private Korean or American sources indicate that increased numbers of rebel sympathizers have been surrendering, mostly to local police.

190610

• 유엔한국위원단 제주 방문 예정(1949. 4. 16)

DIVISION OF
COMMUNICATIONS AND RECORDS
TELEGRAPH BRANCH

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

INCOMING TELEGRAM

SECRET

1949 APR 18 AM 8 34
CORRECTED COPY
4/17/49, 10 p.m.
COMMUNICATIONS CENTER DERSCORED

Control 5941

Rec'd April 15, 1949
11:33 p.m.

FROM: Seoul

TO: Secretary of State.

NO: 401, April 16, 1 p.m.

Following UNCOK developments have taken place since OURTEL 359, April 9:

1. Staff member returned Seoul. Letter due arrive north Korea April 15. (Paragraph 1 OURTEL 262, March 19).
2. Commission met April 13 consider answer to questionnaire regarding intentions UNCOK submitted by representatives Korean press opposed Rhee 30 March.
3. Observer suggestion not yet formally introduced UNCOK.
4. Subcommittee I heard Finance Minister Kim Do Yun. Subcommittee II heard Home Minister Kim Hyo Suk.
5. UNCOK party visiting Chejudo April 18-April 21.

MUCGIO

• 1949년 3월의 정치요약(1949. 4. 18)