3. CIVIL UNREST

✓ a. Communist Activities On CHEJU DO Confirmed

Interrogation of raiders captured from the village of WIDONG-RI (928-1144) furnished proof that communists have been partly responsible for violence on CHEJU-DO. One raider killed was identified as the village leader of the SOUTH KOREA LABOR PARTY and prisoners stated that other raiders are controlled and directed by the SLLP. (MG report B-2)

✓ b. Communication Equipment Confiscated on CHEJU-DO

A search of CHOCEON-RI (963-1155) by the police resulted in the confiscation of a Japanese field phone, one Japanese radio and a large quantity of wire. All the equipment was in excellent condition and appeared to have been recently operated. (MG report B-2)

3. CIVIL UNREST

✓ a. People's Committee Organizes on CHEJU-DO

Skeleton groups of the communist PEOPLE'S COMMITTEE are reported to be attempting to assume political control of isolated communities on CHEJU-DO through close coordination of guerrilla raiders and affiliated groups.

These affiliated groups are: (1) the CHOW I DE, a group organized along military lines to recruit personnel, gain information and provide supplies for the guerillas; (2) the SEEPO, a political action group of SOUTH KOREA LABOR PARTY members which specializes in checking on local rightist activities; and (3) the YO SON TONG MYON, the women's auxiliary which assists in providing food for the guerrillas. (Interrogation Report)

COMMENT: This PEOPLE'S COMMITTEE faction is a South Korean counterpart to the existing PEOPLE'S COMMITTEE government in North KOREA. It is similar to the group which took advantage of the interim period in 1945, between the time of the Japanese surrender and the American occupation, to establish a PEOPLE'S COMMITTEE government.
