c. Raider Activities on CHEJU DO

On 23 October an estimated 60 raiders attacked the police at CHO CHUN NI (963-1154). Constabularymen arrived and the raiders were driven off. There were no casualties to either sides. (CIC P/R #254. C-3)

On 24 October 7 policemen repairing telephone lines near SHIN HEUNG NI (962-1154) were attacked by 40 raiders. One policeman was killed and his weapon was taken. Members of the NORTHWEST YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION, acting as temporary policemen, were dispatched to the scene and drove off the raiders. (CIC P/R #254. C-3)

On 24 October 35 armed raiders and an unknown number of unarmed raiders attacked the police at SOO HUN NI (938-1146). One policeman was killed and 1 was wounded. (CIC P/R #254. C-3)

On 29 October a Constabulary patrol surprised an estimated 200 raiders who were holding a meeting at KOHUNG NI (971-1146). A fight, which lasted about eight hours, developed between the raiders and the Constabulary patrol. The patrol was later reinforced by 2 Constabulary companies. Four raiders were killed and 20 were captured. The second in command, under KIM Tal San, of the CHEJU DO guerrilla forces was reported killed. Ammunition, weapons and clothing were confiscated from the raiders. Captured documents indicated that a 6-day campaign against CHEJU City was being planned by the raiders. No casualties to the Constabulary were reported. (CIC Flash Report. A-2)
