(EXTRACT: USAFIK G-2 Periodic Report #472, 6 March 1947):

"Attempts Made to Discredit U. S. Army Forces in Korea - CIC reports that the following two examples may be attempts to discredit the U. S. Army in Korea. Neither of these incidents resulted in injuries to either Koreans or Americans, but they may be a small part in an overall plan to bring about ill feelings between Koreans and Americans.

(1) At 2230 on 1 March a vehicle (ambulance type without red cross markings) stopped in front of the SEOUL main fire station and a person, not positively identified as an American, although wearing GI clothing, fired a shot at a fireman standing in front of the station. The vehicle sped off before any action could be taken.

(2) At 2300 on 1 March, a jeep ran through a blockade set up by two policemen of the West Gate Station. None of the passengers could be identified, but the driver was thought to be Korean by the policemen. One of the passengers fired a volley of five or six shots as the jeep approached the road block. Both the police and American guards stated that the shots were from a carbine."

5. Miscellaneous.
