On 12 June constabulary troops captured 45 natives, three of whom were key men of raider groups. (MG report B-2)

d. Post Election Communist Plans

The current communist plan, which supposedly became effective 10 May, was revealed in documents found on a provincial party leader who was arrested 06 June. In addition to the usual plans to propagate withdrawal of occupation troops and opposition to South Korean government, new objectives included the following:

- (1) Make excuses for the electric power shut off and include objections to the Military Government in the excuse
- (2) Have technicians from blacksmiths and jewelry stores make handgrenades
- (3) Have employees of trucking companies and garages secure gasoline
- (4) Form guerilla groups, each group consisting of three men, and collect firearms by attacking police boxes and policemen's homes until 20 June. (CIC S/I 13 June B-2)
