Raiders Attack Police On CHEJU-DO (Delayed Report)

At 011531 August the KEUM YUNG (975-1157) police box was attacked by approximately 30 raiders, the majority of whom wore Japanese helmets, constabulary uniforms and carried M1 rifles. Many of the raiders were believed to have been deserters from the Korean Constabulary. Several hundred rounds were fired by both the police and the raiders in a fight which lasted for more than an hour. A prominent rightist in KEUM YUNG was killed by the raiders but there were no known casualties among the police or raiders. (CIC P/R #207. B-2)

(1) People's Liberation Army On CHEJU-DO Praised

A letter of praise and a promise of aid in the form of clothing, ammunition and advisors was received from KIM Il Sung by the People's Liberation Army on CHEJU-DO. Several men from CHEJU-DO who graduated from the KIM Il Sung University in June are allegedly on their way from North Korea to CHEJU-DO with further promises of aid and instructions from KIM Il Sung. (CIC P/R #207. C-3)

(2) CHUNGCHONG-PUKTO Policeman Arrested For Communist Activities

A sergeant of the Korean National Police in KOESAN (1078-1553) was arrested on 30 August and charged with participation in the North Korean election and affiliation with the communists. During interrogation the policeman implicated an unknown number of fellow policemen. (CIC P/R #206. B-3)

(3) North Korean Ballots Falsified

A member of the DEMOCRATIC STUDENTS UNION was assigned the mission of obtaining signatures from his neighbors on North Korean election ballots. Because he was unable to obtain any signatures the Communist wrote the names of various neighbors on the ballots and used his own finger and toe prints as certification for the signatures. By this method the Communist was able to furnish 8 false ballots to be used in the 25 August election. (CIC S/I 24 Aug. C-2)
