

A. ARMED FORCES

2. Operational Activity (Confidential)

b. Constabulary Action on CHEJU DO

Operations of the constabulary on CHEJU DO continue. On 14 May the constabulary assisted the police in repelling attacks on HALLIM (934-1138); five of the raiders were killed. On 16 May the constabulary investigated O DUNG RI (954-1146) and OSA RI (951-1149), killing one raider and taking 169 prisoners.

B. CURRENT INTELLIGENCE

2. Anti-Election Groups

Except on CHEJU DO (Part I, 2,b) the activities of Korean organization which opposed the 10 May election have subsided. Police action, combined with community vigilance, has discouraged a protraction of the Communist campaign to terrorize South Koreans into abandoning participation in any phase of the election, whether as candidates, officials, or voters.

5. Civil Unrest

u. A Week's Violence In South KOREA

CHEJU-DO was the only place in South KOREA where communist anti-election violence met with any degree of success (apparently the National Election Committee has decided that two of CHEJU-DO's three seats in the new legislature remain unfilled because less than half of the ballot boxes in the two districts were received).

A summary of acts of violence involving communists for the week is as follows:

[illegible]b. Delayed Reports Covering Last Week

Delayed reports of incidents that occurred during the week ending 14 May which were not carried in last week's summary (see Part I, B, 3. c., W/S #139) are :
