(3) The Democratic National Front Comments on Recent Strike

A letter dated 28 March from the Left Wing Democratic People's Front to the American Commander in KOREA states that the recent strikes were a justifiable and an inevitable opposition against the fascistic repression by the reactionary police and pro-Japanese who have wormed their way into USAMGIK. This letter states that the strike was not against USAMGIK, but only those that had managed to obtain power and who were pro-Japanese or reactionary. The CHEJU-DO strike was included as a strike against the police. In this letter the additional factor of terroristic gangs of the Right also was mentioned (see par 3e/2/, above).

COMMENT: This organization, headed by HU, Hun, the leader of the Left Wing, can be accepted as the leader of the Left Wing political groups. The Democratic People's Front characterizes the strike as spontaneous, but available evidence indicates that orders from SEOUL were the basis.

(2) Rightist Power Gaining in CHEJU-DO

Koreans on CHEJU-DO are swinging to the right in their political affiliations, according to a recent report by CIC. The rightist GREAT KOREAN DEMOCRATIC YOUTH ALLIANCE (see par 4b/3/) is openly campaigning in old leftist strongholds. The recent disruption of leftist parties by the police is said to be the reason for the open activity of the rightists. Rightists feel that the left is no longer able to organize any resistance against right wing domination. Rightists are soliciting members by word of mouth and posters. (CIC P/R #525)
