

salted fish and 3 trucks. A Korean Coast Guard prize crew took her into MOKPO (938 - 1307).

- c. The KIMBU JEAN, MM-65, motor cargo boat, was apprehended at 1125, 9 Jan, at Latitude 33° 53' North, Longitude 126° 28' East, for having 900 sacks (60 kilograms per sack) of illegal rice aboard. U.S. Navy personnel did not inventory cargo but believed that more than 900 sacks were aboard; authenticity of clearance papers also extremely doubtful. A Korean Coast Guard prize crew took her into MOKPO.
- d. The CHUN ILL-WEAN, D-673, 12 ton motor cargo boat, was apprehended at 1100, 13 Jan, at Latitude 33° 50' North, Longitude 126° 50' East, for having an illegal cargo of at least 50 bales of cotton aboard. A Korean Coast Guard prize crew took her into MOKPO.
- e. The CHONG KWONG WHANG, N-224, motor cargo boat with auxiliary sail, was apprehended at 1630, 15 Jan, at Latitude 33° 36' North, Longitude 126° 36' East, for having an illegal cargo of cotton, silk, and 20 sacks of rice. Destination was CHEJU Island but since the motor had broken down, the U.S. Destroyer "HOLLISTER" towed her to within 2 miles of shore and radioed the LSM 321 in the harbor to send out a launch and to turn boat over to U.S. Army at CHEJU.
