sessions. When the Police attempted to break up the meeting one of them was beaten soundly. Shortly before other police arrived the crowd dispersed with most of them taking to the hills.

4. Strikes

School strike on Cheju island was found to have no political basis with the students demanding to have established a senior high school and that the teachers refrain from teaching Japanese. The matter is being discussed amicably and measures are being taken to see that these demands are met.

I. POLITICAL SECTION (Confidential).

4. Miscellaneous
Political Reports

Request that all offices submit the Bi-Monthly Political Surveys in six copies instead of the previously requested two copies. All offices that have not as yet turned in a Political Survey will take immediate steps to do so.

Recommend that all OIC's read the SOP and MEMO 38 carefully, especially sections which deal with Memorandum Reports and Summary of Information reports, as reports coming in from the field do not meet specified requirements. Many reports received imply that OIC's are not reading or checking reports originating in their offices. All agents will be required to read the SOP and MEMO 38 by 15 August 1947 and OIC's will submit letter to this headquarters stating that the above has been accomplished.

2. Sabotage.

The only report on possible sabotage came from the Cheju Do office where the telephone wires connecting the 59th MG with the Infantry post at Cheju airstrip were cut destroying the communication between the two. Since no wire was stolen and since no other motive is evident, it appears that sabotage is more than a likely explanation for this incident. Investigation is under way.

7. Assassination

The governor of Cheju Do, an extreme rightist belonging to the Korean Independence Party, has grown considerably unpopular with the people. During the last few weeks he has become the subject of many handbills, some of which call for his assassination.
