NORTHWEST YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION - Taegu and Inchon CIC report that the local branch of NWYMA has reorganized. This reorganization was accomplished by members who either resigned their membership in UYMP or who had refused to join UYMP originally. The Seoul Hq of NWYMA has repeatedly stated that no branches of NWYMA were authorized to merge into UYMP, but several branches have merged. The word is probably getting around and those who have formally merged will probably be reorganized under the colors of NWYMA and continue operation along their established lines.

SAW BOOK recently dispatched a mission to Chejudo for the purpose of organizing a branch of the association. They (SAW BOOK) are also conducting a public opinion poll and generally enlightening the islanders who inhabit the small islands off MOKPO. (MOKPO police reports that the visitors have been well received and the people of one Myun and Gun "donated" 50,000 yen to the cause of NWYMA).

4. Youth Groups (Right wing)

On CHEJU DO, approximately one tenth of the members of the UYMP have banded together and formed a Dae Dong Students Corps. This is, apparently, the first movement of its kind originating in this party.

Recently the Northwest Young Mens Association published a statement announcing the reorganization of the party and stated that the NWYMA would have no connections with former members who had joined the UYMP.
