Leftists Infiltrate Rightist Groups

According to the chairman of the UNITED YOUNG MEN'S PARTY on CHEJU-DO, left-wing groups on the island appear to have received orders to infiltrate right-wing groups there. Several attempts have been made recently by known leftists to join the UNITED YOUNG MEN'S PARTY, the NORTH EST YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION, and even the neutral KOREAN NATIONAL YOUTH CORPS. (CIC S/I)

CONTENT: Of these groups the NATIONAL YOUTH CORPS, SKIG-sponsored, welcomes leftist members. Ostensibly non-pertisan, the group re-indoctrinates its leftist recruits.

d. Military Governor Visits CHEJU-DO

Schools were dismissed and work was suspended in CHEJU (950-1150) last week during the new military governor's visit to CHEJU-DO Island. Large numbers of people stood in respectful silence as the governor passed through the town of CHEJU. He made a brief talk on the need for team-work in overcoming the difficulties of setting KOREA up as an independent nation. Provincial Governor RYU Hai Chin spoke briefly and politely in assurance of the general cooperation which the governor could expect. (CIC F/R #704)

(2) CHEJU-DO Public Feeling Against Police Reported

CHEJU (950-1152) CIC was recently told by an informant that public feeling is such that unless justice is soon brought to bear on the CHEJU police, all organizations will attack the CHEJU-DO inspection command office. (CIC P/R #713, C-3)

(c) Leftists Join R/W To Throw Opposition Off Guard

Leftists are joining with right-wing organizations on CHEJU-DO in order to throw police and rightists off guard, according to a letter mailed from the island to national police headquarters in SEOUL. The director of the CHEJU (950-1150) police inspection division claims that 70 per cent of the local SKIG-sponsored KOREAN NATIONAL YOUTH CORPS is made up of leftists on the dodge. (SEO/6284)

(1) CHEJU-DO, Communists Ordered To Riot Between Middle February, 05 March

Communists have called for riots to break out on CHEJU-DO "between the middle of February and 05 March," according to translations of papers seized during a 22 January raid on an illegal meeting of the communist SOUTH KOREA LABOR PARTY branch in CHOCHUN (963-1154). Instructions had also been issued for communists to "assassinate the police staff and high officials and seize police arms." (CIC S/I 05 Feb. Translation of seized papers)

While several SKLP staff members are believed to have escaped from police who broke in on the early morning (0300 hours) meeting, 106 people who were attending the meeting were arrested and an additional 63 were picked up before noon of the same day. A mimeograph machine and a large quantity of paper were confiscated. (CIC S/I, 05 Feb. C-3)
