Part 1. South Korea

On Cheju Do constabulary action has resulted in the death of 51 raiders. (PMAQ report).

Comment: Credit for successful sorties against the guerrillas may be given villagers who are assisting the authorities by giving information concerning guerrilla locations and plans. Recent guerrilla attacks and burning of homes have aroused civilian antagonism toward the raiders in many locales.

8. The following restriction have been imposed on Cheju Do by Korean officials as a result of Communist activity: all fishing boats have been restricted since 20 October to prevent traffic to the Yosu area; and, on 09 November, all middle schools were closed pending loyalty checks on teachers and students.
